

Six words, six questions

Worksheet · Read and Ask · Interview in Three Rounds

WHAT YOU'RE TRAINING NOW

In your own words

You put it in your own words and explain it. If you can explain it, you understand it.

Six words, six questions

Who	who does it, who is affected?
What	what happens, what exactly is it?
Where	where does it take place, where does it say so?
When	when does it start, what comes before and after?
Why	why does it happen, why is it so?
How	how does it work, how do you know?

Turn every heading into a question with one of the six words.
Answer without reading along.

My questions for this text

LudensFlow · Read and Ask

Six words, six questions

Who	who does it, who is affected?
What	what happens, what exactly is it?
Where	where does it take place, where does it say so?
When	when does it start, what comes before and after?
Why	why does it happen, why is it so?
How	how does it work, how do you know?

Turn every heading into a question with one of the six words.
Answer without reading along.

My questions for this text

LudensFlow · Read and Ask

Six words, six questions

Who	who does it, who is affected?
What	what happens, what exactly is it?
Where	where does it take place, where does it say so?
When	when does it start, what comes before and after?
Why	why does it happen, why is it so?
How	how does it work, how do you know?

Turn every heading into a question with one of the six words.
Answer without reading along.

My questions for this text

LudensFlow · Read and Ask

Six words, six questions

Who	who does it, who is affected?
What	what happens, what exactly is it?
Where	where does it take place, where does it say so?
When	when does it start, what comes before and after?
Why	why does it happen, why is it so?
How	how does it work, how do you know?

Turn every heading into a question with one of the six words.
Answer without reading along.

My questions for this text

LudensFlow · Read and Ask

Cut along the dotted line.